

Unit One: Understanding Society and Sociology

Attempt following questions

1. What is Sociology? How do we understand it? Analyze relation between society and sociology.

Sociology is subject of society

2. What do you understand by the term 'Sociology'? Discuss origin and development of sociology in Nepal.

3. What do you understand by society? Relate society with sociology in relation with its building.

4. What do you understand about social structural approach? Discuss it with contribution of Norbert Elias.

5. What do you understand by the sociological imagination? Describe C. Wright Mill's concept of the sociological imagination.

6. What is sociology of knowledge? How does Peter Berger and Thomas Luckman discuss the concepts?

7. What is comparative historical approach? Elaborate the views of Charles Tilly and Michael Mann.

8. "The society today is result of transformation" Justify the statement with help of political and economic transformation of Nepalese society.

9. "Social interaction is one of important building block of society" Justify the statement with suitable example.

10. "Education is major factor of social transformation" Justify the statement with suitable example.

11. "Sociology is discipline of scientific study of social structure and social interaction. Justify the statement with suitable example

12. Write short note on the following

A. Socio-cultural Transformation

B. Social Interaction in Everyday life

C. Sociology of Knowledge

D. Social Structure as building block of society